

Receivership Consultant

Position Overview

The Receivership Consultant is responsible for supporting Risk & Regulatory Consulting in the overall growth and management of this functional area. The Consultant is responsible for all aspects of client project management, including project planning, project strategy, and project fulfillment execution as well as practice and people development. The Consultant will also assist in business development, business planning, and opportunity identification and qualification.

Specific Duties and Responsibilities

- Plan and lead Troubled Company and Receivership projects, on behalf of Risk & Regulatory Consulting clients
- Assist/personally generate billable revenue
- Lead and support project teams to deliver business solutions in client-driven and focused manner in response to market needs
- Lead project teams in execution of work plan
- Prepare and complete detailed project plan based on scope and objectives
- Assist with executing project plan
- Monitor project budget using client invoices and expense information
- Manage change in scope identified by project team including estimating change, documenting and securing client approval
- Define specific skills needed to fill roles defined during proposal phase
- Conduct client status meetings, review deliverables, receive client sign-off, escalate issues and communicate client opportunities
- Maintain an active network in the business community, attending events that can generate leads or opportunities or at a minimum provide valuable insight to the local market.
- Approve team project reports, timesheets and expense reports
- Responsible for managing consultants with regard to career development, mentoring, issue resolution and performance management.
- Create, document and deliver “end of project” review for all team members

Requirements

- Bachelor’s Degree in Accounting or Finance; MBA, JD and/or professional certification/s preferred
- Minimum of 5+ years professional experience with insurance company receiverships
- Knowledge of insurance regulation
- Knowledge of insurance company receivership law
- Demonstrated problem solving skills
- Ability to interact with all levels including executives and senior managers
- Strong interpersonal, presentation, analytical and statistical sampling skills
- Demonstrated history of project management experience
- Excellent organizational skills and the ability to prioritize multiple tasks, projects and assignments
- Exceptional written and verbal communication skills are required
- Dynamic/flexible demeanor with exceptional client service skills
- Forward-thinking leader with a collaborative focus who can consult effectively with key constituents and become recognized as a valued resource
- PC skills, including experience in using software for producing presentations, spreadsheets, and project planning
- Must be self-motivated and possess a sense of urgency
- Skilled in team building and team development
- Flexibility to travel
- Ability to demonstrate ethical and professional standards as outlined by the Firm
- CPA and/or receivership designations are a plus
- Professional experience in insurance company rehabilitations and receiverships, public accounting (preferably Big 4) and Insurance consulting